

Presentation 3

CORE 101 04A, Spring 2004

Prepare and present a presentation about your Paper 3 subject. The presentation should be roughly 12 minutes in length. (Ten to fifteen minutes is fine.) Your presentation should not be a reading of your paper, but instead a summary of your research, presented as a lecture.

I encourage you to use visual aids, particularly for emphasizing the structure of your talk. Possible ways of accomplishing this include the chalkboard, a poster (with huge letters), and PowerPoint.

You should place a high premium on engaging the entire class, through your material selection, word choice, vocal inflection, eye contact, and body language. You should be prepared to field questions from the class following your talk.

The schedule of presentations is as follows.

Wed., Apr. 14	Fri., Apr. 16	Tue., Apr. 20
Bauck, Bryan	No class	Schmitz, Nicole
Paisley, Michael		Konold, Patrick
Hellier, Luke		Bergen, Timothy
Collins, Ryan		Lovgren, Matthew
Thu., Apr. 22	Mon., Apr. 26
Huisman, Chelsey	Hennek, Carrie
Paul, Fred	Gunness, Lucy
Hanson, Joseph	Minck, Andrew
Wegscheid, Amy		